UNITED THANK OFFERING | STARTING TODAY, BOTH SERVICES

United Thank Offering is a ministry of the Episcopal Church that serves the whole church's mission. Blue boxes located in the narthex, are used to give thanks daily. We are kicking off this year's offering campaign and we are collecting the boxes for a blessing on February 15 2026! This is a meaningful practice for all ages, and children are invited to participate. More information at: saintbarnabas.org/uto

► COPING WITH GRIEF DURING THE HOLIDAYS | Today, 11:45am-1pm | Sean's Place

If you are carrying the weight of a departed loved one, we invite you into this space of comfort and hope. Together we'll find support in sharing, listening, and walking the journey of grief with one another. Our hope is to offer both solace and gentle guidance as you navigate this season of loss and healing. For questions or more information, contact The Rev. Pam Bell at: pam@saintbarnabas.org. Read more at: saintbarnabas.org/grief-november.
